

Earth Trauma Signature DNA Clearing

Step 1: Knowing the three pathways of awareness, and any combination thereof, the first step is noticing how the trauma is disrupting your external experience of life.

- common, primary but non-emergency disruptions show up as challenging 'karma' in the areas of relationships, health, blocked creativity
- additional disruptions show up as challenges in the areas of finance/money/debt or business matters in a stall, a downward trend, or crashing
- emergencies; disruptions and potential threats to personal safety
- minor to major community emergencies; from flooding on your block to flooding of your entire community; fire, tornado, earthquake

You don't feel safe, loved, whole, included, or valued when this earth trauma signatures show up.

Step 2: Null and void earth trauma signature 'contracts,' unconscious agreements, or destructive contracts and agreements carried between parties from one body/lifetime to another in DNA damaged continuity; this damage may be frozen in the information storage and retrieval system that is one of the functions of our 'junk' genes.

These contracts and agreements are embedded in your DNA, your body, your emotions/thoughts.

Render these contracts and agreements null and void:

- see/feel a symbolic form that represents the trauma /agreement to be dissolved
- see/feel any person or persons associated with a trauma contract/agreement
- see/feel yourself ripping up or otherwise breaking apart the form of the contract/agreement and placing ALL the bits inside a bubble of light
- don't let any bits 'wriggle' away from you or your light bubble
- Inside this bubble, create a >0< vortex (energy cone); one half of the vortex is spinning clockwise; the other half is spinning counter clock-wise = rotating charge

- see the trauma contract/agreements bits being moved into the center of this vortex; the center will appear as a void/black hole
- include any smoky vapor or any spider-like webbing that may be associated with this contract/agreement
- keep the bubble of light together until you 'see' that all the bits are gone

Say out loud: I release any and all soul fragment lineages resulting from this contract/agreement.' This trauma contract/agreement is now null and void across all realms and realities; past, present and future.

Dissolve the light bubble.

Come back to your everyday state of awareness. Breathe. Feel every part of your body for a sense of clearing release, relaxation or pain relief.

Say out loud: My Spirit, Soul, and I release any and all damaged DNA coding lineage resulting from this contract/agreement'. This trauma contract/agreement is now null and void in my DNA coding across all realms and realities; past, present and future.

Repeat each time you become aware of any of the three entry pathways of awareness described at the beginning of this exercise.
